Dear Parent/Carer

Our students moving into S6 will start back on Tuesday 31st May. I appreciate that the return date is before all SQA examinations are complete. However, this is in line with all South Ayrshire Council schools and the majority of our students will be finished with their examinations.

All S6 students should report to the Concert Hall for 9am on Tuesday 31st May, where they will take part in their S6 Induction Day. They do not need to wear school uniform on this day.

The students will be issued with their timetables during the course of the day and will be able to speak to the Student Support and Development Team later that week, if there are any issues.

If students are still involved in the SQA examination diet, Mr Allison will be in touch to arrange a catch up induction session in June.

I look forward to welcoming your young person back to Marr College to continue the next stage of their learning journey.

Yours faithfully
